

The Office for Research Career Development (ORCD)

presents a

Professional Development for Researchers

Panel Discussion on Clarifying

“What Constitutes Plagiarism in Laboratory Research”

with panelists

Christopher Clark, JD (Partners Office of the General Council)
Margaret Dale, JD (HMS Dean for Faculty and Research Integrity)
Melissa Tearney, JD (Nixon Peabody, LLP)

You think you have never plagiarized... or have you?

Join us for a panel discussion on consequences to you and the institution, lessons learned from recently decided cases, and tips for clarification.

Friday, March 2, 2007

4:00 - 5:30pm

Thier Conference Room (1st floor)

Snacks and refreshments will be available.

Please RSVP by email to orcd@partners.org or by calling our office at (617) 643-1606.