

The Office for Research Career Development (ORCD)

presents a

Professional Development for Researchers

What's In It For You? Your Benefits Program at MGH

Mark Grubbs, Director, MGH Professional Staff Benefits will lead the discussion. Will be joined by retirement saving experts from TIAA-CREF, Fidelity Investments and The Vanguard Group.

Have you been too busy with your research to pay much attention to yourself? Might you have missed Open Enrollment last November? Do you have any idea of how your retirement plans work? Here is your opportunity to take a little break from your research endeavors to learn of the very important and valuable benefits program made possible through your employment at MGH.

Wednesday, April 11, 2007

4:00 - 5:30pm

Thier Conference Room, first floor

Snacks and refreshments will be available.

Please RSVP by email to orcd@partners.org or by calling our office at (617) 643-1606.